(212) 555-0166 · aseck@carrowlindqvist.example · Languages: English, French, Wolof

Biography

Amadou Seck is an associate on the firm's removal defense team. He represents people in immigration court, both detained and not detained.

His cases include asylum and related protection, bond hearings, cancellation of removal and Temporary Protected Status. He prepares clients and witnesses to testify, and gathers the country conditions evidence their cases rely on.

He also drafts briefs to the Board of Immigration Appeals with Samuel Reznikov.

He joined the firm in 2021 after a year as a judicial law clerk at an immigration court. He consults in English, French and Wolof.
